

Going from the hotel to the department on foot:

Get out of the hotel and take a right and walk north along Calle Molina Larios. You will walk past the Cathedral. Continue until you reach a crosspoint with a Telefonica shop just in front. Take left (you are on calle Granada) and then take the first right (calle Caldería).

Walk along calle de la Calderería until plaza Uncibay, keep straight, crossing calle Ollerías to take calle Caspalma (it is straight in front of you from plaza Uncibay, but takes the direction N-NE).

You will now keep going straight until the Teatro Cervantes, although the street names will change:

Follow Caspalma until it meets calle Alamos. Keep going straight on calle Carcer, you should see the Teatro Cervantes just in front of you. Go until the Teatro.

Go along the Teatro to the right. You should be walking between the Teatro and the Mercado de la Merced. Take the first left, calle Frailes.

Walk along calle Frailes for 180 meters and take the first street to the right, calle Cruz Verde, then take the first left, calle de los Negros. It is now time to go up the hill on which you will find the campus.

Walk up that street until you reach bifurcation. You should see stairs directly in front of view. Go up the stairs, and take the street that you can see on your left (perpendicular to the street with which the stairs merge). This is calle El Ejido. Pass the parking entrance on the right and take the first entrance, you are in the Faculty.

Inside the building (look for signs): go right until the end of the building then left and then right again. Take the elevator or the stairs to the third floor.
